Are you traveling by train?

RuimteUtrecht is within walking distance (10 minutes) from Utrecht Central Station. Take the exit towards Jaarbeursplein (Jaarbeurs square). Cross the Jaarbeurs square, past the Beatrix theater, and turn left onto the Croeselaan. Once you reach the striking new Rabobank office, turn right to the Van Zijstweg. Follow the Van Zijstweg past the entrance of the high building of Urban Italian restaurant 'Fico' and you will find the four gray gravel silos about 50 meters afterwards. They are situated near the waterside, next to the crane.

By car?

Once on the Ring Utrecht (the roundway), follow the blue signs saying 'Jaarbeurs'. Follow the signs to P4. The parking exit card can be paid afterwards at the pay parking automat of P4. The silos are a few minutes walking from P4.

Walk to the exit of P4, cross the road, turn left and follow the walk-/bikeway with a slight bend to the right between channel and P2 to the Nelson Mandela bridge. Cross the road, turn left in the direction of the Rabobank towers, cross the bridge and take after 30 meters the pootpath to the silos.

Free parking space is available along the Kanaalweg along the channel or the residential area around the harbour, but since these places are free, they tend to be crowded.

By bike?

You can park your bike under the silos.

Entry

Every stairwell has a sign saying in which silo you're expected.
